been held in this vicinity since the beginning of the campaign. Three stands were occupied at the fair grounds this afternoon, Governor Nores and Colonel Robertson speaking from one, Mr. Fairbanks from another, and Judge Kenworthy from the third. At the court-house, in the evening, Judge Kenworthy spoke with others, and his address was a masterly effort that held the attention and commanded the admiration of everyone who heard it. The Judge is a former resident of this vicinity and in closing his elequent and earnest address he made the following strong appear to his old friends and neighbore:

"Citizens of Indiana-You are the observed of all observers. The Republicans of the Nation envy you in the position you occupy in the line of this great battle. My own loved Iowa and the great Northwest will on the morning of Nov. 7 send you an unbroken line of her tens of thourands majorithes for your and our gallant leader. You are upon the isthmus like the heroic band at Thermopyles. May your hands find new strength and your hearts fresh courage in the lessons of to-day, and on the morning of Nov. 7 may the Nation see the banner of protection at the mast-head in Indiana, and may we bear your sones of rejoicing of a victory of truth over falsehood; of right over wrong. Men of Indiana, the Nation expects this of you."

A Successful Meeting in Greene County. Correspondence of the India napolis Journal.

Lyons, Greene Co., Oct. 26.-The Republican rally at Lyons, on the 25th, was a success in every respect. The weather was propitious, and the people from the surrounding towns and country poured into the town until all available space was occupied. The Democrats claimed that the number present at their Bynum rally was from 3,000 to 5,000. The number in attendance Thursday was equally large, while the parade excelled it in every particular. The celsbrated "Pop-corn Glee Club," with the no less excellent glee club of male singers from Bloomfield, the glee clubs from Island City, Linton, Marco, Fairplay, the two glee clubs from Lyons, one of them an excellent colored one, besides tornet bands and drum corps, were all noticeable features in the procession. The elegant rlee-club wagons of Island City, Lyons, Marco and Linton have been pronounced the finest in the State, and they elicited much praise from the crowds of spectators. There was a log cabin on a wagon, a free-trade wagon, a wagon containing two sheep, one without wool, for free trade; the other sheep, a splendid specimen, denoted protection; a boat in which Grover was represented as fishing on Decoration day; and there, as well as the innumerable mottoes and bursts of applause. Worthington, Greens county, sent a handsomely-uniformed delegation of bright-faced first voters, fifty six in number, who will cast their first votes at the coming election for Harrison, Morton and Protection. Hon. W. M. Marine, of Maryland, and Jim Wood, the Irish miner, addressed the as sembled multitude from a beautifully-decorated stand in a grove north of town. The speeches were on the tariff, elicited much enthusiasm. and cannot fail to do much for the Republican party. The Republican ladies of Lyons and surrounding neighborhood spread a bountiful dinner for the glee clubs and bands, and about 275 persons partook of the repast.

Hon. Henry S. Wilcox at Reedville. Special to the Indianapolis Journa.

REEDVILLE, Oct. 29. - Hon. Henry S. Wilsox, of Iowa, addressed 1,500 people here to-day. A pole was raised 150 feet high, from which floats the stars and stripes. A coon is perched on the extreme top. In the course of his remarks Mr. Wilcox said that Mr. Cleveland had been, from the first, a persistent servant of Wall street, and had done nothing for the industrial interests of North or South. That his illiberal and technical pension policy had not been sustained in Congress by either Union or rebel soldiers, and his war upon silver and greenbacks, his effort to contract the currency, and his attempt to lower the price of American labor to the foreign level, were against the interests of both the North and South, and would redound only to the benefit of the owners of bonds, mortgages and fixed incomes. The cheaper labor and its products became, the riefer would this class become. All others are interested in maintaining the volume of money, and keeping up the price of labor and its products. This was especially true of persons in debt. Mr. Wilcox's invitation to the South to assist in this work was a graphic piece of word-painting. In speaking of the candidates, he said that General Harrison had been selected an a man wise enough to represent the whole Namon; who would look not only igto the palares of the eich, but into the hovels of the poor; could survey the corn-fields of the North and the cotton-fields of the South; would see the mechanic at his bench and the merchant at his desk, and would favor a po tey to remove the thistles of war from the cotton-fields and plant the rose of peace us der the palmette, by fostering and encouraging the industrial interests of the whole country. He would destroy the trusts by direct legislation and not by destroying the business in which they were engaged.

Joe Fifer and R. W. Thompson at Danville, Ill. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 29 .- Danville witnessed to-day the largest raily that has ever been seen in Vermillion county. The crowd and enthusiasm were by all odds greater than in 1860. The day was lovely, and delegation after delegation, on horseback, in wagons, on foot, and by sailway, poured in from every quarter, ustil the streets were a perfect jam. The city was beautifully decorated - both business houses and private residences. It was impossible to estimate the crowd. Delegations from Champaign, Attica, Homer and other points arrived after night, in time for the torch light procession. The parade in the day-time was five miles in length, and consisted of delegations from every point and township, each contesting for the banner to the largest delegation. Georgetown took first and Catlin second. Bands, floats, log-cabins and trade displays of every description were represented. Mr. Fifer arrived at 1 o'clock P. M., and was immediately driven to the fairgrounds, where he addressed twenty thousand people. His speech was not lengthy on account of his being very much fatigued and hoarse, but he made a very able address of some thirty minntes, dwelling principally on the tariff, his points being answered by cheers The evening display of the works was pretty and the torchlight procession was very fine, one feature being the raticoad club, with a locomotive drawn by horses and the marchers following with white, red and blue lanterns. Along the whole line of march an evation of enthusiasm prevailed. Hon. R. W. Thompson spoke at the Armory to a #### large crowd. Brought Home to Roost

Special to the Indianapolis Journas ROCHESTER, Oct. 29. - Several Democratic merchants of this city have taken considerable interest in assaulting the protective-tariff system this fall, and no argument could be brought to bear which would induce them to acknowledge that the prosperity of this country was largely due to that "iniquitous" system. Within the past year there have been several auction and "Cheap John" stores located here for a brief time, handling boots, shoes, tinware, etc., and no outery against it has been made. But within a few days past an auction store located here which departed from the usual line, and displayed dry goods. This interfered with the business of the "tariff reformers." They straightway drew up I petition and circulated it among their fellow-Democrats, asking the Town Council to exact a jax or license of the auction store man before he be allowed to sell. To make the list appear as large as possible the gentleman circulating the petition stepped into the store of a Republican and asked his signature. After reading the article a broad smile spread ever his countenance. "You bet," said he, "I'm for protection every time." The fellow knew he was caught, but he did not care, as it was his busipess which was being affected, and he continued the circulation of the paper, amid the laughter #### of the Republicans. A Big Rally at Princeton. becial to the Indianapolis Journal

PRINCETON, Oct. 29. - The greatest political cally ever held in Gibson county was held at his place to-day by the Republicans. The weather was exceptionally fine, and the crowd was setimated at 15,000. In the procession were thirty four glee cinbs, from all parts of this and adjoining counties. By actual count there were 5,300 people in the parade, and thirty-four lecorated glee club wagons, drawn by six to twelve horses. The crowd gathered at the fair grounds, and was addressed by Cart Lee Yar-Wichits, Kan.; Hon H. C. Gooding, of Evansville, and Hon. Martin W. Fields, of this county. All the speakers spoke at the same time from different standa. Great crowds gathered around each speaker and listened to the points and hits as they were made, with the closest attention. Bibson county cave its first Republican majori-will this year give him a majority of 350. Tonight a moneter torch-light procession was held, and Colonel Hollowell and Hon. H. C. Gooding addressed the people from the court-house steps, on the east and south sides of the building. The enthusiasm in this county is wide spreading and every Republican is not only interested but is at

A Big Day at New Castle. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEW CASTLE, Oct. 29.-To-day was a great day for the Republicans of Henry and adjoining counties. It was the great day of the campaign in this city and the demonstration excooded anything ever witnessed in this part of the State. From early morning until after 2 o'clock a flood of bumsnity continued to flow into the city, and when the procession arrived at the fair grounds there were fully 20,000 people in the crowd. It was a Republican day, a Harrison day, a Hoosier day. The old veterans, the first voters, the old ladies and young ladies, boys and girls were all out, and Republican enthusiasm was at high tide. In the procession, which was over two hours in passing a point, were many unique banners and wagons, two traction engines, to which were attached ten big wagons maded with people. At the fair grounds the afternoon was given over to music and oratory. Ex-Gov. Noves, of Obio; State Senator Kenworthy, of Iowa; Lieutenant Gov. Robertson, and Hon. C. W. Fairbarks addressed the people from three different stands. Governor Noyes's speech was devoted largely to the tariff issue, which he handled in a very able manuer. Lieutenant-governor Robert-on gave Minister West's letter some attention in his speech, which greatly pleased the audience. The event was a great success.

General Swift at Greenwood.

pecial to the Indiapapolis Journal. GREENWOOD, Oct. 29 .- Gen. John Swift, of Boston, spoke here to-night. Delegations ponred in from surrounding places, and the large hall in which the people assembled was packed to overflowing. Every seat was full, the stage was occupied, and the aisles were filled by persons who gave the closest attention during the whole evening. As an oratorical effort, the General's speech has never been equaled in the presence of a Greenwood audience. At the conclusion of the speech men and women crowded around to shake the hand of the man who pushed the claim of their leader so nobly. His argument in tayor of protection was unique. Out of dry facts he brought fascinating and inspiring pictures. When he announced the condusion drawn from reports sent the State con mittee to-day from every State in the Union, the wildest enthusiasm and confusion reigned. Staid and dignified men rose in their seats, waved handkerchiefs, hats and canes, women clapsed their hands, drams sounded, and the small boys fell in with the current, and whistled and yelled themselves hoarse, making a very fitting finale to an enthusiastic campaign.

The Outlook in the Gas Belt,

Kokomo Letter in Chicago Times. Putting together everything I have been able to glean from all sides. I think that to a normal plurality of about 7,050 in the county the Rapublicans will add 300 more, gained solely through the industries developed by natural gas. And I think Howard county will in this respect itad all the other counties in the gas belt. Both parties here eaem to be thoroughly organized, wonderfully entimetastic, and working tooth and nail to utilize every possible item of advantage to their respective sides. But it will take gallant and efficient work indeed on the part of the minority in this county to prevent the Republicans from giving Harrison an ncrease of plurality over that given Blaine sufficient to be ranked as quite important in this very close State. If the election was six months later the increase would probably assume formidable proportions, but luckily for Democratic interests it is only a few days dis-

Hovey and Tanner at Brazil.

special to the Indianapolis Journal BRAZIL, Oct. 29. - General Hovey and Corporal Tanner were accorded a magnificent ovation here, to-night. Excursion trains brought Republicans by the thousands from neighboring counties as well as from distant parts of Clay county, the Terre Haute delegation requiring two trains for its conveyance. The city was illuminsted for the occasion. A procession nearly an hour in length, paraded the principal streets amid much enthusiasm, its special feature being a large representation of railroad men, iron-mill men, miners, and the famous Ridge Farm ball. About 90 per cent. of the paraders were voters. The speaking began at 10 o'clock, and General Hovey was warmly greeted, although he spoke but briefly. Corporal Tanner spoke more at length. The wigwam, though large, could not hold a sixth of the people present. It was a magnificent political demonstration.

Lying About George W. Steele. special to the Indianapolis Journal

WABASH, Oct. 29.—The desperate Democracy here will stop at nothing to defeat Hon. George W. Steele, Republican candidate for Congress in this district. To-day it was learned that Dr. Depuy, a notorious Democratic bluffer here, has been circulating the report that Steele said in his speech here, last week, that he had the Grant county national soldiers home located north of Marion in order to benefit Wabash county. What Mr. Steele said was that he had nothing to do with the location, and that the site chosen was nearer Wabash county vit to that effect was signed here to-day by forty leading Republicans. It frustrates the scheme by which the Democrats hoped to work up enmity against Major Steele.

To-Day's Meeting at Peru.

Special to the Ingianapolis Journal. PERU, Oct. 29. - Republican arrangements are on a grand scale for their mass-meeting to-morrow, and the event will be one of greater magnitude than even the managers expected. The industrial parade will be a mammeth affair, and the speakers announced will be in attendance. Already the city is in holiday attire and work is progressing rapidly. The rivalry for the silk dag among the different townships is great, each endeavoring to outdo the other. With fine weather the crowd will be the largest ever seen

Soldiers' Enthusiasm at Warren.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WARREN, Oct. 29. - The climax in politics was reached, last Saturday evening, at Pulse's Hall, where a mammoth audience assembled to hear an address by Hon. Geo. W. Steele. The meeting was of the camp fire order, and the old defenders of the flag, who had been life-long Democrats, and voted for Cleveland four years ago, denounced him in butter terms, and deciared for Harrison and protection. There were nearly two hundred soldiers who signed a resolution enlogizing Geo. W. Steele as the soldiers' friend.

The Colored Voters Rullying.

Special to the Irdianapolis Journal WABASH, Oct. 29 .- The colored people of this city and vicinity had a Republican love-feast at the opera-house in this city to-night. Music was furnished by the Concordia Band and the Hazen Glee Club, Short speeches were made by Rev. G. H. Hill, Daniel Furguson and Jesse Parmenter. The colored people here are for the Republican ticket. Among the features of the meeting to-night was the presence of the Ladies' Harrison and Morton Club, which marched to the opera-house in a body.

Speaker Carliste's Rally at Anderson. Special to the Indianapolis Journal

ANDERSON, Oct. 29.-The Democrats of this vicinity had a rally here to-day, and, by a tremendous effort, succeeded in attracting somewhat of a crowd, which was composed largely. however, of women and children. Hon, John G. Carlisle was the orator of the occasion, and spoke at the fair ground in the afternoon. The Democrats here evidently have planty of money at their command this year, and they are not at all penurious with it. The rally closed in the evening with a torch-light procession.

Denounced as a Lie.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal PAOLI, Oct. 29 .- An item appears in to-day's Louisville Courier-Journal autouncing that six old-time Republicans of this place, who heard Blaine at New Albany, had gone to the Democrats. It is an infamous, whole-cloth lie, without a shadow of a foundation. There is not a disgruntled Republican in Orange county.

Alexander Dowling at Charlestown.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal CHARLESTOWN, Ind , Oct 29 -One of the best speeches on the tariff issue ever delivered in southern Indiana was made by the Hon. Alexander Dowling, of New Albany, at Charlestown, av, four votes, for General Harrison, in 1876, and ' on Saturday night. In his speech he discussed all the important issues, and closed by showing the benefits to be derived from a protective system, and the evils which would follow the passage of the Mills bill. Had the hall had a seating capacity of 3,000, instead of 800, it would have been filled as Democrats as well as Republicans were anxious to gain an entrance. Jason B. Brown occupied a seat on the platform and listened intentively to the speech of Mr. Dow-

Ira J. Chase in Spencer County.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ROCKPORT, Oct. 29 .- Hon. Ira J. Chase, capdidate for Lieutenant-governor, delivered two rousing speeches to large audiences, in this county, on Saturday, at Riehland City in the asternoon, and in the court house at Rockport at night. His speech here is regarded as one of the best of the campaign. Eight Democratic soldiers at the two meetings pledged themselves to Mr. Chase to vote for General Harr.son and the whole Republican ticket.

Betting at Delphi.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal DELPHI, Oct. 29. - Considerable of a sensation was created in this city Saturday by the bet made between James Bunnell and County Clerk Pigman, the former a Democrat and the latter a Republican. Bunnell proposed to wager $1,000 that Cleveland would be elected, and was taken up immediately by Pigman. The Republicans are taking all propositions on Indiana, New York and the general result.

Charles F. Griffin at New Albany,

Special to the Indiapapolis Journal NEW ALBANY, Oct. 29 .- Hon. Charles F Griffin, Secretary of State, addressed an immense crowd of Republicans at Lincoln League Hall on Saturday night, on the issues of the campaign. His speech was one of facts and figures, clearly showing the friendly policy of the administration toward England. He also alluded to the letter of Lord Sackville West, and created an uproar of laughter.

Hon. M. D. Tackett at Madison.

special to the Indianapolis Journal Madison, Oct. 29. - Hou. Marine D. Tackett. of Greensburg, addressed a large assemblage here to-night in behalf of Republicanism. Just before commencing Chairman Crosier read a telegram saying Gov. Foraker would speak at Madison next Saturday at 1 P. M., when the Republicans of Jefferson county will give grand daylight and night parades.

Other Meetings.

Specials to the Indianapolis Journal: ELWOOD, Oct. 29.-G. M. Ballard, of Anderson, spoke to a crowded house at Reel's Chapel, six miles north of Elwood, last Saturday evening. It was the best speech made this year in north Madison county, and did the Republican cause much good. Mr. Ballard is a logical, forcible speaker, dealing in facts, not fancies, and carries conviction to his hearers. His presentation of the tariff question was upanswerable. He also showed the inconsistencies of the Democratic party on the whisky question-how the Mills bill makes it free for drinking purposes His arraignment of Cleveland for his pension vetoes, and the injustice of the Democratic party toward the workingmen in buying convict-made wagons, was applauded, many Democrats congratulating him for his advocacy of protection to honest labor.

UNION CITY, Oct. 29 .- A meeting of unusual inverest was held at the opera hall here. Saturday evening. It was under the auspices of the Republican First Voters Club, and the speaker of the evening was Jos. G. Leffler, of Muncie, a first voter and speaker of unusual oratorical promise and argumentative ability. The Piqua Harrison and Morton Glee Club was present and added to the enthusiasm by appropriate songs. CAMBRIDGE CITY, Oct. 29. - Charles E. Shive-

Forty thousand people are expected at Portland to hear John Sherman, Nov. 1. Half fare has been secured on both roads, and a special train will leave Richmond in the morning, retorning in the evening, to accommodate Wayne and Randolph counties.

At the Democratic rally at Kokomo, yesterday, the Democrats resorted to their usual bluffs. All their money was covered quickly, and $2,500 Republican money remained in the ring, with still another thousand back of it to wager on Harrison, but the Democrats had enough.

The second attempt of the Wabash railway employes at Andrews to raise their monster Harrison and Morton pole resulted in & failure last evening. When the huge stick was half way up the rope broke, and the pole fell, breaking in several places. No further effort to raise it will now be made.

The young Republicans of Knightstown raised three Harrison and Morton poles last Saturday -one at the north end of the public square, 110 feet high; one at the east end of town for J. W. Woods, and another on East Main street for Wesley Byerly. The stars and stripes were hoisted on top of each, and much enthusiasm pre-

The Indianapolis Sentinel has made a great fuss over the appouncement that James L. Shelton, of Knightstown, had come out for Cleveland and reform from principle. The truth of the matter is that Mr. Shelton was kicked out of the Republican camp last spring for perpetrating frauds in the primary elections, when he was a local committeeman, and has naturally drifted into the party that condones and admires such offenres.

Fleeing Prisoner Instantly Killed by Police Officer. Special to the Indianapolis Journal

HUNTINGTON, Oct. 29.-Robert Watson, the keeper of a disreputable house, was shot and instantly killed by Marshal Jack Rosebraugh, this morning. Watson had just been released from jail and was re-arrested for severely beating a man. He had his trial before the grand jury this morning. Seeing a back door open he made a dash for liberty and ran out, followed closely by the city marshal. After a chase through the streets for several block, the fleeing prisoner was cornered, and when the marshal approached, the criminal drew a revolver. The marshal was too quick for him, however, and shot him through the head, instantly killing him. The shooting is generally regarded as justifiable, but the coroner's inquest is not yet completed, the evidence as to whether Watson was armed being somewhat contradictory, Wason was a notorious tough and but little regret is expressed at his death. He was about thirty years of age and his father is a respectable farmer of Lagro township, Wabash county. He leaves a wife.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COUET.

The Texas Drummer Case Decided in Favor of the Commercial Traveler.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 .-- In an opinion rendered by Justice Bradley in the drummer-tax case of Wm. G. Asher vs. the State of Texas, the Supreme Court of the United States to-day declared unconstitutional all laws imposing a license tax on commercial travelers not residents of the State imposing the tax. Asher was a resident of New Orleans, and while selling goods by sample in Texas was arrested and fined for violation of the State law making it a misde meanur for any person to do business as a commercial traveler without first having taken out an occupation-tax certificate. Asher contested the constitutionality of this statute, taking the ground that it was repugnant to the clause of the Constitution giving Congress the exclusive right to regulate interstate commerce. The State court decided against him. Asher appealed the case to the Supreme Court, which today gave a decision in his favor. The court, in its opinion, says that it sees no difference be-tween this case and the Robins-Tennessee case, in which the State law was held to be unconstitutional. As to the contention of the authorities of Texas, that the decision of the Supreme Court in the Robins case was in conflict with prior decisions of the court. Justice Bradley very dryly says that, even were this true, the court has always supposed that a later decision has the effect of overruling a prior decision with which it may not be in harmony. The court then eays: "We do not propose to enter into a renewed discussion of the matter at this time." The Supreme Court also rendered an opinion affirming the judgment of the Supreme Court of the State of Georgia in the case of the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company, plaintiff in error, vs. the Railroad Commissioners of Georgia. The railroad commissioners, by authority of the State Legislature, prescribed what should be reasonable and just rates of transportation, and the railroad company brought an action against them, claiming that the rates established constituted an impairment of the contract between the State and company, its charter, granted in 1833, having given it the exclusive right of transportation over the roads it might construct, provided its transportation charges did not exceed certain fixed rates. The Supreme Court in an opinion by Justice Field says that the reserved right of a State to regulate charges by common carriers cannot be taken away except by contract expressed in clear and unequivocal language. The charter of the company, the court holds, simply provides that the company shall have the exclusive right to carry passengers and merchandles over its road so long as the maximum rates specified are not exceeded. It contains no stipulation, nor is any implied, as to any fotore action of the Legislature. If the exclusive right remain undisturbed, there can be so just kind of complaint that other limitations than those expressed are placed upon the charges authorized, but it would require much clearer language than this to justify the court in holding that notwithstanding the altered conditions of the country in the future, the Legislature had contracted that the company might charge for transportation of persons and property over its line for all time, up to the limits there desig-

The court reversed the judgment of the State court, with costs. and remanded the case, with instructions to discharge the plaintiff in error

How Cleveland's Burchard Looks. Washington Letter.

West is a small man, thin and straight, although his head leans forward when he walke. He has ecanty hair and a full beard, both once jet black, now blue-blacked with dre. He wears English clothes which are always twenty years too young for him. His face has a bard, wooden expression, and all his movements are mechanical. He must be sixty-five and over, and very old for his age he is. He lives, like his prede cessor, Sir Edward Thornton, in the big brick building put up by the British government in Sir Edward's time, on Connecticut avenue, on land bought cheaply by the shrewd Sir Edward. It is substantially but not very tastefully fornished, and altogether is a comfortable sort of place. One thing that makes it especially comfortable is that the British government pays all the expenses of its maintenance. West has an incom- of nearly $125,000 a year now, besides his $50,000 for entertaining purposes. And yet he is the most unhappy man in Washington. In one short letter be has made himself the laughing-stock of the world.

We stated a few days ago the surprising circomstance that there had been a very large sum of money raised by subscription for the Democrats of Indiana in the Territory of Dakota: and the incidents that have come to our knowledge of subscriptions in Southern towns for the Indiana Democracy, warrant the opinion that money has been poured into that State, with the object of making it a previous of the solid South, in extraordinary sums. We would like to see a popular subscription to help the galiant Republicans of Indiana to the extent of their capacity properly to use money. We will not print the names of those who send checks, or cash, withlong Democrat; and his death resulted from ex- | out permission, but we prefer to print them.

"I cannot but give expression to a very painful reminiscence of my journey. While I have devoted health and strength to securing the peace and welfare of the fatherland, and rhus of the capital also, by creating ties of friendship, the daily press of the capital has given publicity to and spoken about the affairs of my family in a manuer which a private individual would never tolerate. I am not only painfully impressed by this, but my displeasure has been aroused. I wish, above all, that the continuous citing of the name of my departed father shall cease. It most deeply injures my feelings as his son, and it is, in the highest degree, unbecoming. I trust that when I choose Berlin as my principal residence-and, as a B-rilner, it always attracts me-the people will avoid making the private relations of my family the subject of press discussion. The duties uniting a prince with his people for the purpose of making the fatherland great and bapty are numerous and imperiant enough for them to devote their whole attention to it in & thoroughly patriotic manner, allowing all other affairs, such as I have already mentioned, to rest without giving them publicary. They should combine to use their strength in a faithful devotion to these high and noble sime. In General Harrison the Republicans have a candidate who is equal to all tests and meets all requirements. Though he has made a legion of speeches since his nomination, he has made not a single imprudent one and not a single poor one. He has steadily grown in the estimation of the country, and is personally stronger to-day by many votes than when he was nominated While the chief meaning of Republican success will be the triumph of protection, even Democrats can find solace in the reflection that in General Harrison the country will have for President a large-minded, Christian gentleman, who is thoroughly equipped by nature, by education and by experience for the difficult and trying post of chief magistrate of this great Republic.

A Famous Doctor

Once said that the secret of good health consisted in keeping the head cool, the feet warm, and the bowels open. Had this eminent physician lived in our day, and known the merits of Ayer's Pills as an aperient, he would certainly have recommended them, as so many of his distinguished successors are doing.

The celebrated Dr. Farnsworth; of Norwich, Conn., recommends Ayer's Pills as the best of all remedies for "Intermittent Fevers."

Dr. I. E. Fowler, of Bridgeport, Conn., says: "Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."

Dr. Mayhew, of New Bedford, Mass., says: "Having prescribed many thousands of Ayer's Pills, in my practice, I can unhesitatingly pronounce them the best cathartic in use."

The Massachusetts State Assayer, Dr. A. A. Hayes, certifies : "I have made a careful analysis of Ayer's Pills. They contain the active principles of wellknown drugs, isolated from inert matter, which plan is, chemically speaking, of great importance to their usefulness. It insures activity, certainty, and uniformity of ellect. Ayer's Phils contain no metallie or mineral substance, but the virtues of vegetable remedies in skillful combination."
